- Who are both, of course, great-nephews?
- A That's right.
- Q (The Court) Where are they, Mrs. Shinnick?
- A Carroll is now in Vietnam, and David Shinnick is an electronics engineer at Aerojet.
 - Q Here in Frederick?
 - A Yes.
 - Q (Mr. Offutt) And he resides with you?
 - A Yes, he does.
- Q Now upon her return, and I refer to Miss Eader, to the Vindobona in September, 1968, is it your understanding she has not paid any portion of that bill?
 - A That is my understanding.
- At some prior occasion within the last few years did she or not execute an indenture of trust to the Farmers & Mechanics National Bank to look after her affairs?
 - A Yes, she did.
- Q And then she rescinded that and appointed your son as Trustee?
 - A That's right.
- Q And during the time your son was Trustee was it or not necessary to borrow funds from the bank in the amount of $1500.00, which was May 31, 1968, to pay her then bill at the Vindobons; and other expenses?

 A Mr. Offutt, I believe that transaction was made before my son took it over. I think that was made through the F. & M. Bank before he took it over.

MR. WENNER: Your Honor, if I might comment—
THE COURT: Well, Mr. Wenner, I assume you are going to testify too? You have some personal knowledge.

MR. WENNER: Yes.

MR. OFFUTT: At this point may I excuse Mrs. Shinnick?

THE COURT: Yes, Mr. Holtz, swear Mr. Wenner,
